

Kings and Queens

A kingdom is a place ruled or governed by a king or queen.

A queen or king rules over a land and the people who live there.

A palace is where a king or queen live.

To reign is the period of time during which a queen or king rules a kingdom.

Treasures are things that are valuable because they cost a lot.

An heir to the throne is the next king or queen to rule the kingdom.

In a royal family, the mother is called the queen, the daughter is called the princess, and the son is called the prince.

Servants are men or women who are hired and paid to do things that the master of a home or a king or queen do not want to do.

Kings and queens arranged marriages between their children and children of other kings and queens in other countries. Then the two kingdoms would form a partnership or a team.
