

Wind in the Willows is a story written by Kenneth Grahame in 1908 and is known as a classic.

It is a fiction story. It is created from the author's imagination.

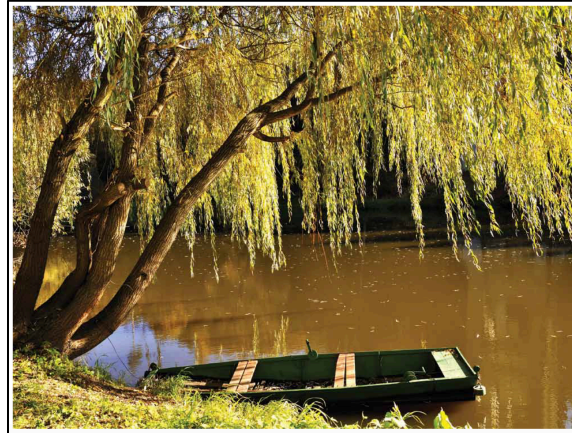

The story is about animal characters living near a river and woods/forest.

The main characters are a Mole, Vole, a Badger and a Toad.

The main themes of the story are friendship, loyalty, responsibility and irresponsibility.

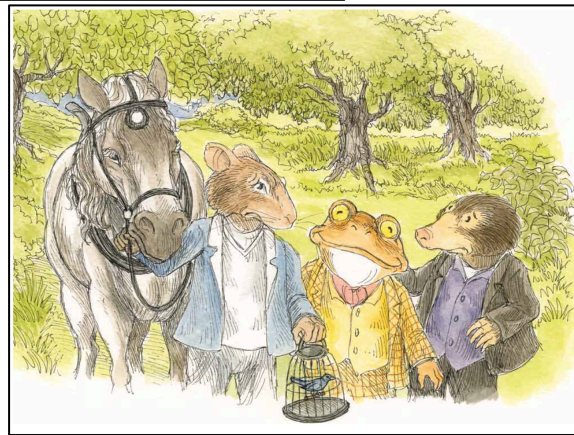

YEAR 4

Wind in the Willows

A willow

Rat, Toad
and Mole

A setting is where the story takes place.

Narration is the part of the story that tells us what is happening.

Dialogue is what characters say to each other.

Quotation marks distinguish narration from dialogue.

Perspective is the character's experiences, actions, and thoughts through which the story is told.

Personification is when you give human qualities or abilities to an object or animal.

Examples of personification in the story are Mole and Rat wearing clothes and Mole cleaning his house with a broom.

Core Vocabulary

meandered, v. Moved slowly and without purpose dejected, adj. Depressed; unhappy, sometimes because one feels lonely or left out conceited, adj. Having a very high opinion of yourself; thinking that you are the best disguise, n. A costume that hides who you are recklessly, adv. Carelessly; unconcerned about the consequences or results of an action